Experience

Freelance Website Developer

2019 – Now

I started my career as a website development freelancer, directly with clients since 2019 but I started to focus on website development since 2020. So I have worked throughout my career, 2019 - Now and I enjoy working as a website developer.

Coding Youtuber

On my channel, I made a video tutorial on making a website I made using the javascript programming language. With this channel, I want to learn together about design, because we don't get that much in our formal education, especially those who can't afford college. That's why I made this video tutorial on my video. Second, it helps me grow my brand, to get more potential client exposure.
